Public Health-The Influenza-Croton Water.

BY GREELEY & McELRATH.

To the Editor of The Tribune: Permit me, through the columns of your paper to call the attention of the Board of Health to the epidemic which is prevailing to an alarming extent in this city. It is indeed so common that it can scarcely have failed to fall under your personal observation. It is so common that

I know of instances where whole families have been prostrated by it at the same time. By some it is called the Influenza, and although to a certain extent a similarity prevails, yet in some respects, their characteristies are entirely opposite.

The Influenza, it has been suggested, "is rough revision and correction of his great Dic- caused by the presence of a highly irritating and poisonous gas in the atmosphere." The Police of Philadelphia.
PHILADELEHIA, June 20, 1813.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

A Philadelphia correspondent, in your paper of to-day, makes an attack, maliciously, as I believe, upon the Police of this City. He says:—"The almost unparalleled outages which have been perpetrated in our City, within the last fortnight, have awakened a feeling of indignation toward aclass of people who are employed to protect our community from degradation and reproach. I allude to the Police.

What are "the supparalleled outrages which have been perpetrated in our City within the last fortnight?" This is assertion which, if true, is susceptible of proof. Will surface or espondent produce it?

The City has never been more free from crime. Not a burglary or a larceny—beyond a petty larceny—or a crime of say magnitude, has been perpetrated within the City limits for three months.

The above remedy is now offered with countence by the Proprietor's Agent, E. M. GUION, 127 Bowery corner of Grand-street, and corner of Third Avenne and Fourteentisstreet. For evidence of its virtues read the following: Extract of a latter from G. W. Allerton, Esp., Alderman of the Twelfth Ward: "I pur chased some of your Elixir and tried it on an old man in my employ, who had used all other remedies without effect; he had become so very weak that he could scree rise from his bed. I gave him the Elixir, and it was astonishing to see the good effects on the old man; it revived him immediately, and in three days, with being a little weak, he was able to do his ordinary work. My family, after the old man had been so soon releved, used the Elixir also, and were in each case effectually restored to health.

"I have in a severe attack of Dysentery in my family checked it in using one dase of the Elixir.

"A poor woman in my vicinity who had tried all the usual remedies without effect for Fever and Azue of five month's standing, was instantly reheved after using about a wine-glass full of the Elixir, and has not been troubled with the Ague since."
